

Geneva Summer Schools 2015

UNDERSTANDING HUMANITARIAN ACTION

Characteristics and Challenges
June 15 – June 26, 2015

www.genevasummerschools.ch

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE

UNDERSTANDING HUMANITARIAN ACTION CHARACTERISTICS AND CHALLENGES

A UNIVERSITY OF GENEVA SUMMER SCHOOL

- A unique course on the main characteristics and challenges of humanitarian action presented through the study of its various disciplinary concepts, frameworks and operational stakes such as history, geopolitics, international law, economy or ethics.
- For under or post graduate diploma holders and for professionals in contact with Humanitarian Action (diplomats, regional organisations...)
- A theoretical perspective illustrated by practical examples.
- Lectures are delivered by both scholars and professionals coming from Geneva-based humanitarian and international organisations, as well as North/South Universities.
- An opportunity to understand the diversity of actions and to build one's own critical thinking .
- An occasion to share and discover different cultures and experiences.
- The possibility to visit some of the most important humanitarian organisations and to participate in some key humanitarian conferences and round tables.
- 4 ECTS credits.

Course Directors

Professor Doris Schopper
Faculty of Medicine,
University of Geneva
Director, Geneva Center
for Education and Research
in Humanitarian Action (CERAH)

Claire Barthélémy
Geneva Center
for Education and Research
in Humanitarian Action (CERAH)

June 15 - June 26, 2015

Application Deadline: May 15, 2015 | Tuition Fees: 2200 CHF
humanitarian-action@unige.ch